

Travel iClinic

Health

Travel iClinic is your ultimate health shield that alerts and protects you from infections and ailments, while traveling. Just tap and get an early alert of the list of diseases prevailing in the place or places, you are planning to visit aided with map views. Select any country in the world and check out the disease list existing in that country. Not just that, it is a one-stop application that would aware you about the symptoms, advices on the methods of prevention and presses for necessary pre-travel vaccinations or medications to keep yourself, friends and family hail and hearty during your trip.

Application screenshots

